

School Philosophy

We value:

"Participation with Commitment"

- striving to achieve the highest possible standards
- enhancing self-esteem
- using our cooperative and consultative processes
- recognising individual and collective needs and contributions
- providing flexible pathways to multiple destinations
- having a commitment to lifelong learning
- acquiring skills for future contribution to society
- having high standards in personal and interpersonal skills
- having effective relationships among all members of the school community
- recognising the need for self-improvement
- continuously improving the services we provide
- taking responsibility for our actions.
