Depending on your school type and year levels offered, you may choose to remove some non-applicable sections. Some sections marked optional may also be deleted.

Note 2. Careful consideration should be given to the nature of reporting where there are fewer than five people in a group, cohort or reporting field, or where all persons in a particular group have achieved identical results.

Note 3. To meet the 30 June deadline, the completed SAR must be uploaded by 15 June 2018. This will enable any issues to be resolved prior to the end of the school term. The SAR must be located no more than '1 click' away from the school's home page and be left on the website for a minimum of 12 months.

School Overview

Established in 1986, Runcorn State High School is located in the southern suburbs of Brisbane. Although the school's primary school catchment is from the local communities of Runcorn, Sunnybank Hills, Kuraby, Eight Mile Plains and Algester, students are attracted from all over Brisbane. The tone of the school is calm and purposeful and students have a friendly and cooperative manner. Runcorn State High School has a fine tradition of producing conscientious and aspirational students and has an absolute commitment to ensuring our students have access to multiple learning pathways. Achievement and purpose is underpinned by the school motto of "Pride, Success, Excellence". Students are encouraged to enter competitions in areas of interest and expertise and when they excel, their achievements are celebrated by the whole school community. High standards of dress are expected with students required to purchase formal and sports uniforms. Behaviour is another area where high standards are expected. The school values co-operation, common sense, courtesy and consideration in the school's code of behaviour. The learning and teaching philosophies are guided by current research and the school uses Marzano as a platform for pedagogical reform. We believe that students learn at different rates and students should be challenged with tasks at levels appropriate to their skill development. Teachers are committed to using technology as an integral part of classroom learning and are committed to upgrading their skills in using technology and online environments in the classroom. The school is well equipped with a newly refurbished hi-tech learning centre with a variety of purpose built areas catering for different learning styles. As a Gateway School, there is a keen focus on engineering, manufacturing and industry partnerships in this area. The purpose built Trade Skills Centre ensures students are taught in line with industry standards. The creative arts flourish with an Art Gallery and purpose built dance and recording studios. There is a strong sense of community and purposeful partnerships have been established with parents, industry and tertiary partners to promote opportunity for our students. The School Council provides a link between the school and the real world and is pivotal in assisting with the school's strategic priorities. Student opinion is valued and sought through the equitable student leadership model. The "Blues" sporting program has a widespread reputation with an astounding record in team sports with a history of metropolitan championships. Touch football and basketball are offered as sports subjects at the school and are very popular with the students.

Principal's Foreword

Introduction

School Progress towards its goals in 2017

In 2017, the school improvement agenda is focused on two areas: Personalised Learning and High Expectations. The overall strategies were to build teacher capacity and to identify opportunities to work more closely with the broader community. The school employed two literacy coaches to assist teachers to “Reading to Learn” strategies and literacy microskills. Peer observation of teaching practice to further build capacity and share exemplary practice also began. The school’s NAPLAN results showed positive effect sizes in all 5 domains in Year 9, an indication that the school’s strategies are assisting students to accelerate their learning

The school had some of the best Year 12 academic data in recent years with 75% OP-eligible students receiving an OP1-15. Again a student received an OP1.

Refurbishment of two Science laboratories and 9 classrooms in the Special education program was completed ready for student use in 2018.

Future Outlook

In 2018, the school improvement agenda continues to focus on our vision: High Expectations and Personalised Learning.

High Expectations will focus on curriculum alignment in Years 7-10 and preparing for the new Senior Assessment and Tertiary Entrance system alongside ongoing coaching assistance to embed “Reading to Learn” strategies into teacher’s pedagogy. Additional human resources through adding a Deputy Principa Inclusion and an additional Head of Department to support the full range of students to accelerate their learning (more than a year’s learning in a year) and provide best practice in inclusive education. Community Engagement, especially with local primary schools and a new relationship with Baseball Queensland remain a priority.

Personalised Learning will continue to focus on using data to track individual student achievement and building teacher’s capacity to teach reading and writing through employing coaches to work alongside teachers and for teachers to share their skill through peer observations. The school’s pedagogy focus will be interacting with new knowledge and teachers establishing and maintaining effective relationships with students.

The school will be implementing the BYOx program, meaning students can bring a laptop to school to supplement their learning. The school is planning to build a weights gymnasium to add to the suite of specialist facilities.

Social Climate

Overview

Visitors to Runcorn State High School regularly comment on the welcoming atmosphere. Comments on the sociability of the community and the harmonious relationships are always favourable. There is a respectful and purposeful tone as we embrace "The Runcorn Way" in our relationships and operations. The multicultural diversity is celebrated and respected. Pre-service teachers and contract teachers comment on the strong spirit of collaboration in the school compared with other schools they have worked in.

All students are welcomed into the school with an enrolment interview which clearly outlines information about school expectations, curriculum offerings and the welfare system within the school. The result is that students are well-informed about high expectations for uniform, homework and behavior and understand who to go to if they need help within the school.

A very high majority of parents report that their child feels safe at school, they are getting a good education and they can talk to their child's teachers about any concerns. Students also rate the school very highly for its focus on school improvement, being well maintained and providing access to interesting opportunities while at school.

Parent and community engagement

A concerted effort is made to encourage parent involvement. Parents have access to all staff. The message system of the phone network ensures communication takes place smoothly. Parents begin their "Runcorn experience" by attending a tour prior to the enrolment and then are interviewed with their student to ensure everyone knows and understands the school policies. In 2016, the school piloted emailing report cards home. Parent-teacher interviews are held in April and August. The school has continued with publishing an electronic newsletter to parents fortnightly. Parents are invited to Principal's Morning Teas conducted twice a year to celebrate students who best embody the school motto of "Pride, Success and Excellence." Students are presented with certificates to recognise academic success, community involvement and regular attendance.

There is a high level of expectation from the school's administration for all staff to contact parents regularly or in a timely fashion. The increasing use of email has made this even more effective. Parents attend Leadership, sub-school Graduation and Duke of Edinburgh Award ceremonies and other whole school events such as Awards Night and Arts Showcase evenings are always celebrated with the broader school community. Where students have an impairment or specific learning needs, parents are encouraged to provide input into their child's program and regular communication between home and school occurs. The school staff work towards full access and participation for students with impairment.

Respectful relationships programs

The school uses the Positive Behaviour for Learning framework to monitor student behavior trends and proactively responds to issues that emerge. Explicit teaching of expected behaviours at school and in the wider community occur regularly. The school's Responsible Behaviour Plan for Students clearly outlines the expected student behaviours and the range of support programs for students.

The school has developed and implemented a program or programs that focus on appropriate, respectful and healthy relationships.

Environmental Footprint

Reducing the school's environmental footprint

In the last few years the school has had a considerable increase in the number of air conditioners placed throughout the school. This is a result of the number of laptop/computer rooms that are used by students and also for staff and student welfare. There has been an effort to bring to staff attention the correct process for running air conditioners i.e. correct temperature, fan settings etc. and this is evident in the reduction of electricity used. Water usage has increased due to drier climatic conditions.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOOTPRINT INDICATORS
Years	Electricity kWh	Water kL
2014-2015	445,067	4,045
2015-2016	433,366	2,190
2016-2017	424,321	3,609

The consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool by each school. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on the school's environmental footprint.

Description of how non-attendance is managed by the school

Non-attendance is managed in state schools in line with the DET procedures, Managing Student Absences and Enforcing Enrolment and Attendance at State Schools and Roll Marking in State Schools, which outline processes for managing and recording student attendance and absenteeism.

At Runcorn State High School, we align with the DET policies for the management of non-attendance. We commit to Every Student, Every Day. Our in-school student absence processes include:

- The Development Officer and Officers for Welfare and Learning (OWLs) closely monitor student attendance and work with the Deputy Principals regarding issues.
- The Roll Clerk takes an active role in phoning parents about absence patterns and anomalies
- Students who are away for three consecutive days have their parents phoned.
- Twice per term all unexplained absences for students are sent home for validating.
- Where a student's absences reach a serious concern, Departmental Policy is enacted through Truancy letters and interviews.
- Since 2011 the school has used ID Attend, a computerised attendance system which enables monitoring much more efficient.
- Parents are sent letters at key junctures (e.g. end of Semester or term) if attendance falls below 85% reminding them of their legal obligation and outlining the effect that absence can have on their child's education.
